

22nd Annual Moby-Dick Marathon

FAQ

1. Where is the Marathon taking place?

In multiple areas throughout the Museum (and the Seamen's Bethel across the street). The timing is detailed in the print program available at the Museum. You can also find program information throughout the Museum.

2. Is there food and drink available?

Yes. Snacks and drinks are available for purchase on the Lower and Upper Level.

3. Can I get a seat in the Seamen's Bethel?

Seats in the Bethel are very limited. If you did not sign up for the drawing for a seat, you can still see Father Mapple's sermon via livestream in the Museum's theater (Lower Level).

4. Can I come and go?

Yes. You may enter and exit through the main Museum entrance as you please.

5. If I haven't signed up, can I still read?

Reading spots have all been assigned. However, inevitably readers may be unable to read at their time slot. You can sign up at the reader log-in table to be a "stand-by" reader.
